Fee Policy – Reviewed Sept 2026

Fees will be invoiced in advance per term. All payments must be made on or before the first day of each term. The fee is an annual amount payable over four terms. Therefore, no refund will be issued for any school days missed during the year, for any reason.

A re-enrolment fee of R400 will be required by the 30th of November for the following academic year.

All foreign learners who are not fluent in English will be charged an additional R300 per month for the first year of schooling.

Fees paid in Maloti (Lesotho Currency) will incur bank charges or interest levied by the bank upon deposit.

A 10% discount applies to the second child and a 15% discount to each subsequent child enrolled.

- Failure to Pay:

Learners will not be allowed to attend classes if the tuition fees have not been received by the first day of each term. Should there be a valid reason for default on payment, parents are requested to visit the school office to make the necessary arrangements, without the learner being present. Re-admission will be considered based on the arrangements made.

Parents who are unable to meet the financial requirements of the school are advised to consider alternative schooling. It is in the best interests of your child to be settled in a school where you can sustain their education. Should you choose to remain at King's School, please avoid a situation where we are required to ask you to remove your child from the school.
